No worries, figured as much but thanks for trying. I'll be back over tomorrow morning and am hoping to be done somewhat early- didn't sound like he had that much to do. Not sure if he'll need to return on Thursday but I assume he'll want to at least check in on it. If we're still there when you arrive tomorrow or Thurs afternoon I'd definitely take the relief!

Thanks,

Michael

Michael,

I just spoke to JR Smith about this and got nowhere. He said foreign nationals must be escorted by a Fed at all times. Maybe Jay can persuade him otherwise, but it seems unlikely. I will be there tomorrow afternoon and can take over for a couple hours. I might have some time to give on Thursday, but I have to leave no later than 5 pm both days.

Hi Josh,

Avi believes they have completed paperwork so that they no longer need an escort, do you know anything about this? I'm here with them today but would be great to have flexibility the rest of the week.

Thanks,

Michael
